Norwegian and Sami are the instruction language at the start of the course. Practicing Sami is increasingly emphasized throughout the course of study.

6. Content

The environment of communication is organized among others for practical situations. The students are expected to communicate in Sami language among themselves and to the teachers whenever working. Central learning themes are connected to Sami traditions, life sustaining issues and other areas. The introductory headlines for the themes are:

The local environment

- Me and my family
- the community and buildings
- clothing
- socializing and service situations

Life Sustaining issues

- time concepts (hours, days and nights, months, seasons)
- weather, travelling and navigation
- nature terms and place names

Basic societal encounters

- art, traditional handicraft, literature, religion and music
- Sami institutions
- media and other means of communication

The very basics of syntax, morphology and phonology will be handled. The part of speech inflect patterns and consonantal gradations will be taught along with practical work in various situations. Phonetics will naturally be connected to oral language practice.

7. Learning outcomes

After successfully completing the course, the student has achieved the following learning outcomes:

- understand and use common speech and sayings in everyday life situations
- be able to shortly tell about oneself and common activities

- be able to ask and answer questions regarding what one does have or not have, one's location, where one is going, the weather and the environment
